

Zinio Magazines

Before You Get Started

Initially you will need to set up two accounts: 1) to validate that you have a current Pinal County library card, and 2) to create an account with Zinio.

Use the same Email Address & Password for all accounts (and the app if you use one).

Step-by-step instructions are below. A short video is on the login website.

Quick Tips for Mobile Device Users

Use your web browser to create both accounts THEN download the Zinio app and login using the exact same account information.

Magazines take some time to download...the cover will open but the full magazine can't be read until the download is complete.

Step-by-Step Instructions for Setting Up Your Accounts

1. Go to the Pinal County Library District Website:

<http://www.pinalcountyz.gov/library>

2. Click on the Zinio digital magazine icon.

3. Click on Create Account (this is your Zinio Library Collection account that allows you to select magazines).

The form contains the following elements:

- Email:
- Password: Trouble logging in?
- Forgot your password?
- By clicking Log In, I agree to the site's Terms of Use.

6. An activation email will be sent to the email account that you used to register. You do not need to verify your email address to continue.

7. Select Return to Login and login to your Zinio Library Collection account.

8. Select Magazines by clicking on the cover on the Zinio Library Collection account page.

9. When you select a magazine a new browser window will open where you will create a Zinio.com account, and setup your email preferences, with the same information you used to create your Zinio Library Collection account.

10. Return to the Zinio Library Collection website to check-out more magazines or to get the next issue.

11. You can read magazines online in your web browser or download an app. The link for the PC app is located at the bottom of the initial login webpage. Visit the app store to download the Zinio app for your device.

Use the same email address & password for all accounts.
