Mr. Joe Pyritz, PIO
P.O. Box 827
Florence, AZ 85132

Dear Mr. Pyritz,

It is a pleasure to inform you that your project, "1891 Pinal County Courthouse Renovation" has been designated an official Arizona Centennial Legacy Project by the Arizona Historical Advisory Commission (AHAC), pursuant to the rights and responsibilities assigned to that commission by the Arizona Legislature. Your certificate will be sent to you shortly.

Your project was selected after AHAC's review of your application, particularly with a view to your adherence to the stated criteria: Arizona Centennial Legacy Projects must 1) accurately portray a significant aspect of Arizona history; 2) be accessible to large numbers of visitors/users; 3) demonstrate collaboration in the planning; 4) produce an enduring product that will live on after 2012; 5) include an educational component; and 6) include a plan for implementation. Only those projects and events that have been reviewed and that have received AHAC's official designation are eligible to enjoy the benefits listed below:

Official designation as a Legacy Project entitles you to:

- display the Arizona Centennial logo on your project publicity
- identify your project with an appropriate phrase, such as:
  - "An Arizona Centennial Legacy Project"
  - "An official Arizona Centennial Legacy Project"
  - "A Legacy Project to mark Arizona's Centennial"

"An officially recognized Legacy Project of the Arizona Historical Advisory Commission"

- apply to AHAC for financial support for your project
- inclusion on the list of Legacy Projects on the official Centennial Web Site
- inclusion of your project on the Calendar of Centennial Event

By signing and returning within thirty days a copy of this award letter, you certify you will carry out the project as described in your application. If at any point you find you cannot complete the project as described, you must notify AHAC, and your official designation as a Legacy Project may be withdrawn.

AHAC relies upon its program partners to help the public learn about the work of the commission and the plans for Centennial projects and events. To assist in this effort we ask that you include in all publicity materials for your project an acknowledgment of AHAC, such as "Pinal County Board of Supervisors is
