Discussion/approval/disapproval of the Fiscal Year 2016 renewal of the Rescue and Restore Victims of Human Trafficking Regional Program Cooperative Agreement and Federal Award No. 90ZV0119-02 between the U.S. Dept of Health and Human Services (DHHS), Administration for Children and Families (ACF), Office of Refugee & Resettlement (ORR) and the Pinal County Attorney's Office to support a regional program to enhance antitrafficking efforts in the U.S. by building regional coalitions, conducting public awareness, and providing training and technical assistance on human trafficking issues. The grant program is scheduled thru June 30, 2017 and includes an annual renewal of $90,000 in funding. This funding consists of monies for equipment, supplies, public awareness advertising, and personnel expenses including a full-time Program Coordinator II position. The Fiscal Year 2016 renewal award requires approval from the Board of Supervisors to change the salary for the Program Coordinator II (Position #4430/Grade 121) from the Q Step Salary ($57,174 with ERE) to Step 7 Salary ($59,679 with ERE). This award was appropriated in the FY 2015-16 budget for the Pinal County Attorney's Office. There is no impact to the general fund budget and the costs associated with the grant program are fully funded by the DHHS Award #90ZV0119-02.

Dwight Fugimoto, appeared before the Board requesting acceptance of the Fiscal Year 2016 renewal of the Rescue and Restore Victims of Human Trafficking Regional Program Cooperative Agreement.

Supervisor Miller expressed his concern regarding the wording of the item placed on the agenda. He was concerned because the item was worded that the renewal award required approval from the Board for the salary to be changed. Supervisor Miller stated that the salary of the Program Coordinator did not need to be changed to approve the grant.

Mr. Fugimoto said that if there was going to be an increase, the Board would have to approve it.

Supervisor Rios stated that he felt the confusion was in the word “requires”, and that some of the Board was interpreting that as meaning we are “required” to approve the increase. He went on to address a memo from Human Resources that indicated the change requested by the grantor was made and after further review, the change resulted in a demotion.

Motion was made Supervisor Rios and seconded by Supervisor Miller to approve the Fiscal Year 2016 renewal of the Rescue and Restore Victims of Human Trafficking Regional Program Cooperative Agreement minus the salary increase.

Supervisor Rios went on to explain his motion stating that he made it due to the Human Resources Director’s memo that speaks to Pinal County Policy 4.20.

Supervisor Smith requested additional information from Mr. Fugimoto.

Supervisor Rios called for Point of Order stating that once the motion is called for, there is no further public testimony.

Motion passed 3-2 as amended. Supervisor House and Supervisor Smith voted Nay.
