Group Home is defined as “A dwelling unit shared as their primary residence by minors, handicapped or elderly persons, living together as a single housekeeping unit, in a long term, family-like environment in which staff persons provide on-site care, training, or support for no more than 10 non-adjudicated residents. Such homes or services provided therein shall be licensed by, certified by, approved by, registered with, funded by or through, or under contract with the State. (Group homes shall not include homes for the developmentally disabled, defined as persons afflicted with autism, cerebral palsy, epilepsy or cognitive disability, as regulated by Arizona Revised Statutes, §36-582.)

The governing regulations that apply are: Pinal County Development Services Code, Chapter 2, Section 2.150.200. A by-right group home shall not be more than 10 persons and shall comply with the governing regulations. Group Homes greater than 10 persons are subject to Special Use Permit or applicable zoning which is applied for under a different packet.

The Group Home process consists of several applications through two divisions of Pinal County Community Development and the State of Arizona. Initially, an applicant must obtain entitlement for the use through a Group Home Permit Application and then applicable building permits must be obtained. For questions, please call 520-866-6442.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Are group homes allowed in County Jurisdiction?
   Yes. Group homes fall into 2 categories in the Pinal County Development Services Code.

a. Group Homes providing care for no more than 10 non-adjudicated patient residents (plus live in caregivers) are allowed in the rural and residential zoning districts. Group homes are subject to conditions including a minimum a separation of 1,200 feet and licensure requirements.

   b. Homes providing care for more than 10 residents require a Special Use Permit or applicable zoning.

   The County will not reserve future properties for Group Homes, all applications are based upon a first come, first serve basis. Previous approvals may be revoked if the use is discontinued.

2. How do I start a group home for no more than 10 residents?
   It is always a good idea to call the zoning information line before making major commitments to a location. Staff can research the location to make sure the separation minimum is met. Complete and submit a Group Home Permit Application.

3. The Arizona State Health Department and other State agencies requires that forms be signed by the zoning and building officials in order to get my license. How do I get them signed?
   Upon approval of a group home permit and issuance of a certificate of occupancy, the forms will be signed and returned to you. They then may become a part of your application to the State.

   Community Development requires the forms be a part of the submittal - submit the appropriate Group Home Permit Application.

4. What if I want to provide care for troubled teens, recovering drug addicts, alcoholics, or just provide day care?
   These facilities are not a category of Group Home. They may be permitted through a Special Use Permit or applicable zoning.

5. Is an inspection required for group homes?
   Yes, a compliance inspection is part of the process. For existing single family homes, residential building codes apply. If the home plans to have more than five residents, a fire sprinkler system may be required (Please review Information Bulletin 023). In the case of a new build group home, the building code definition of a group home applies. This requires the home to meet commercial group home building safety codes. Group Homes for more than 10 persons are subject to an Institutional occupancy classification.
