

Acceptable and Non-Acceptable Identification for Requesting Birth & Death Records

Specific forms of identification that ARE acceptable include the following:

- United States issued Drivers Licenses
- United States issued Identification Care
- United States Territories Driver's License or Identification Card
- Tribal Identification Cards that contains bearer's signature
- U.S. Military Identification Cards that contains bearer's signature (some do not)
- Passports – United States or Foreign Issued
- Visa – In a passport and the bearer's signature is on the passport not the Visa
- Permanent Resident Card issued on or after May 11, 2010 which includes a visible signature
- Resident Alien Card (Form I-551)

Specific forms of identification that ARE NOT acceptable include the following:

- Foreign Consulate Identification Cards
- Mexican Voter Registration Care "Credencial Para Votar"
- Permanent Resident Card issued prior to May 11, 2010 which does not have a visible signature
- Alien Registration Receipt Card Form I-151 (was replaced by the I-551)
- USA B1/B2 Visa/BCC (Form DSP-150)
- Non-resident Border Crosser Card (Form I-586)
- Non-resident Alien Mexican Border Crosser Card (Form I-186)
- Non-resident Alien Canadian Border Crosser Card (Form I-185)
- U.S. Citizen Identification Card (Form I-197)
- Arizona Department of Corrections Released Offender Card
- Arizona Department of Transportation Motor Vehicle Division Temporary Driver's License or other forms of temporary identification issued that state – Not Valid for ID purposes
- D.E.S. Food Stamp Card
- Tribal Identification Cards that DO NOT contain bearer's signature
- U.S. Military Identification Cards that DO NOT contain bearer's signature
- Foreign Driver's License
- International Driver's License
- Employment Authorization Card (Form I-766)